Dispute Readiness for Businesses

nyayos.in

The problem with disputes is not the law. It's the chaos.

Most businesses deal with vendor disputes, unpaid invoices, and broken contracts every year. The ones that go unresolved usually share the same problem — nobody organised what happened before it was too late.

- Documents are scattered across phones, emails, and WhatsApp
- The timeline of events is unclear or disputed
- It's hard to know what's legally relevant
- A lawyer charges just to understand the situation
- Most disputes get abandoned before resolution

"NyayOS gives you the organised starting point that everything else depends on."
